US Hotels Announces Acquisition of Windham Hill Inn in Southern Vermont

New York, NY: April 01, 2008 – US Hotels, an exclusive privately owned group of hotels providing select accommodation, cuisine, and service, has announced the acquisition of Windham Hill Inn, an intimate and charming country inn set on 160 private acres in West Townsend, Vermont. The 21-room inn, which first opened in 1962, joins U.S. Hotels' collection of hotels and restaurants in New England that includes the Relais & Chateaux White Barn Inn & Spa, The Breakwater Inn & Spa and other hospitality offerings in Kennebunkport.

Surrounded by the spectacular Green Mountains Windham Hill Inn is a relaxed and romantic gateway to southern Vermont. The inn features exquisitely designed accommodation in two buildings, including luxurious Loft Rooms, spa-style Deluxe Rooms, Fireplace Rooms and Classic Rooms. The inn's Main House welcomes guests with a living room, sunroom, restaurant and lounge. All of the inn's rooms provide stunning views of the mountains, meadows and valleys. Windham Hill Restaurant, located in the Main House, is acclaimed as one of the region's finest restaurants, featuring contemporary presentations of classic New England and European cuisine in an elegant setting highlighted with wraparound windows. A winner of Wine Spectator's Award of Excellence for 2007, the Windham Hill Restaurant has an extensive international wine list and regularly hosts the Windham Hill Wine Series of dinner events.

Outdoors, guests can soak up the distinctive ambience of the region on a property abundant with towering maples, rock walls, wildlife and spectacular views of the West River Valley. The inn sports a four-mile network of hiking trails, a heated outdoor swimming pool and a tennis court fashioned from native Vermont clay and extensive gardens. The inn also plays host to weddings, small corporate events and executive retreats, with a handsome and fully furnished Conference Center on site which accommodates groups up to 50.
